The tenth anniversary of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held in the First Presbyterian church on next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. The anniversary of the association has always heretofore been held on a Sunday evening, but it has been deemed advisable to make a change this year. As the anniversary will mark the completion of the first decade an unusually attractive programme has been arranged. The board of directors of the Pittsburgh association will be the guests of the association on that occasion. Short addresses will be made by the visitors. The following is the outline of the programme, which is subject to change.

The Spiritual Work . . . Thomas P. Butler
Its Importance . . . F. W. Kiefer
Methods Used . . . W. S. Frazer
The Secular Work . . . Thomas P. Butler

Why a Business Man Should be Interested in the Association . . . George M. Paden
The Importance of a Young Man Joining the Association . . . James P. Orr
The talks must necessarily be limited to eight or ten minutes, but they will be practical and interesting.

In the Circuit Court.

In Judge Paull's court yesterday John Schreiber, a native of Germany, was admitted to citizenship. The following additional business was transacted: In the case of M. B. Horkheimer vs. Hiram Thatcher the jury returned a verdict for the defendant, and a motion was entered for a new trial. In the case of Eli Greer vs. the Fidelity Building, Loan and Investment association no jury was required, and the judge gave a verdict for the defendant. The case of Amelia Groves vs. Sononfeldt et al. was put on trial. In the case of Jacob Kindleberger, guardian of Caroline Kross, a petition for the sale of the real estate was filed. The case of Theo. Miller's administrator vs. W. A. Miller et al. was referred to George E. Boyd. C. P. Flick was appointed guardian ad litem.

A JEWELER ASSIGNS.

R. W. Hase Transfers his Property for the Benefit of his Creditors.

R. W. Hase, the Market street jeweler, yesterday made an assignment for the benefit of his creditors, and the papers were filed with Clerk Hook.

The deed of assignment was made January 11 by R. W. Hase to R. L. Seabright, and transfers all the stock of goods, stove, furniture and fixtures in the room now occupied by said Hase as a jewelry store, at 1523 Market street, and the lease of the room. After paying the expenses of the trust the proceeds of the sale of the goods are to be applied to paying the debts of the assignor pro rata, if not sufficient to pay them in full. The amount of the assets and liabilities could not be learned, the invoice not having yet been made.

A Warrant Out for Hare.

The following telegram from Waynesburg, Pa., indicates that Thomas Hare is to be prosecuted: An information has been made before W. T. Webb, justice of the peace of this place, by George M. Roberts, charging Thomas Hare and John Williams with the murder of his brother, David Roberts, at Davistown, this county, on Christmas day. All of the parties connected with the trouble are oil drillers. A fight occurred on Christmas day, in which Roberts was severely kicked and beaten by the defendants. On the evening Roberts died Hare and Williams left Davistown and have not yet been apprehended. They walked through deep snow, the former making his way to Pittsburgh, and from there went to Wheeling, where, on account of having his feet badly frozen, he was placed in a hospital. Williams is said to be in one of the West Virginia oil fields now.

Stole Dr. Greer's Bric-a-brac.

A young man called yesterday afternoon at the home of the Rev. Dr. David H. Greer, rector of St. Bartholomew's church, at No. 342 Madison avenue, and handed the servant, who answered the bell, a package saying that there were express charges due on it, says the New York Herald, of Thursday. When the maid went up stairs to see Mrs. Greer about the money, the man entered the parlor and took three or four pieces of silver bric-a-brac, valued at $50.

When the girl returned the thief had disappeared. The alleged express package contained a bottle of beer, iron and wine, a bottle of preparation for cleaning clothes and a wisp broom.

In Olden Times

people overlooked the importance of permanently beneficial effects and were satisfied with transient action; but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently cure habitual constipation, well informed people will not buy any other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system.

The Pan-Handle Dyeing establishment, owned by John Heilmuier, at No. 1431 Market street, is the best equipped house of its kind in Wheeling. In addition to the dyeing and cleaning departments a corps of first-class tailors are employed, who can do repairing as neat as it is possible. Clothes and ladies' garments, cleaned or dyed, can be made to look like new. Satisfaction guaranteed.
